

2024 Award Criteria

Below are the detailed award criteria for the annual awards presented to our USTA St. Louis players, providers and leaders. You can submit as many nominations as you would like here: 2024 USTA St. Louis Nominations. Supporting information is extremely useful to the committee and will further your candidate's possible selection as an award recipient. Unless otherwise noted, all nominees must be current USTA members. Additional comments or questions should be sent to director@ustastl.com.

All nominations MUST be received before midnight on September 1, 2024.

We are hosting an Awards Dinner on Saturday, November 16, at the LiUNA Event Center, located at 4532 S. Lindbergh Blvd., Sunset Hills, MO 63127. Award dinner reservations will begin on September 15 (link to be provided). All are welcome, we hope you will join us. Thank you for your interest in USTA St. Louis awards!

PLAYER AWARDS

ADULT PLAYER OF THE YEAR (2 males/2 females)

- Two levels for this award will be recognized:
 - Player ranked 4.0 and above
 - Player ranked 3.5 and below
- Recognition of adult players who participate in USTA League tennis or USTA tournaments
- Criteria are based on performance, current accomplishments, sportsmanship and the promotion of tennis in general, raising the standard of play to its highest level
- Please list all 2024 accomplishments that highlight the nominees' career, including ranking
- Must not have a Code of Conduct report on file in the last 12 months (refer to the Suspension Points Record in Serve Control)
- Must be a current USTA member

JUDY DIPPOLD JUNIOR PLAYER (S) OF THE YEAR (1 male/1 female)

- Junior Player(s) of the Year award is based primarily on high performance results at USTA St. Louis, USTA Missouri Valley and USTA National tournaments
- Equally important is sportsmanship and a demonstration of raising the game to its highest level; the player should exhibit participation in the highest level of competition offered by USTA
- Please list for 2024 all accomplishments that highlight the nominees' career; emphasis should be placed on the last 12 months, but previous performance could also be considered; high performance results and accomplishments can include:
 - A high national ranking
 - A high sectional ranking
 - Placing at a National Championship or the Summer or Winter L3
 - Invitation to participate in special camps or events
- Must not have received a Code of Conduct for last 12 months

EMERGING JUNIOR PLAYERS OF THE YEAR (1 male/1 female)

- Recognition of a junior player who participates in USTA Team Challenges, USTA Junior Team Tennis or other events, such as USTA Junior Circuit, on a regular basis
- Recipients should demonstrate good sportsmanship and are developing a lifelong love for the game
- An emerging junior player is not actively playing in section-level tournaments, maybe not even L5
- These players may show promise to be high-performance players, but may also just be actively playing in WTN Match Play, WTN Tournaments, Junior Team Tennis, Junior Circuit, and Team Challenges
- Must be a current USTA Member

JUNIOR SPORTSMANSHIP AWARD

- The USTA St. Louis Junior Sportsmanship award is given to a male and female junior player in each age group, boys and girls 10s, 12s, 14s, 16s and 18s who best exemplifies the finest qualities of sportsmanship in competitive play including tournaments, USTA Junior Team Tennis and USTA Junior Circuit events
- Good sportsmanship is an essential element of all junior sports and junior development
- The junior player is ineligible if he or she has a Code of Conduct on file in the last 12 months
- Leadership off the court is a bonus; examples could include taking on leadership opportunities or volunteering in the community or with the organization
- The nomination must have a minimum of two instances (in detail) where the nominee exemplified the finest qualities of sportsmanship on and/or off the court (quotes from officials, coaches, parents or players are acceptable)
- Must be a current USTA Member

TENNIS FAMILY OF THE YEAR

- Recognition of the family who in recent years has done the most to promote amateur tennis - primarily on a volunteer basis
- Ideally, all nominated members of the family should participate in some way, either as players or by running programs or tournaments or in junior development activities
- The family must be active in volunteering in some or all of the following:
 - Serving as a volunteer in fostering tennis at any level of the USTA such as national, section, district and/or local board or committee, tournaments and adult and/or junior programs
 - Developing and/or sustaining junior and adult programs
 - Holding office(s) at any level of the USTA
 - Volunteer coaching
 - Competing in tennis, including any youth program or tournament, high school, Tennis On Campus or college varsity, tournaments (include age category rankings), USTA League or other organized play, including social/recreational
 - Enriching the game of tennis in other related activities (i.e., non-tennis activity, honors and/or achievements)
