

A player is eligible to compete at the 2022 NTRP National Championships if their most recent rating is on the following list. Players MUST play at the following level or up one level and MUST be endorsed by the Section. Note that having a rating type listed below may not automatically qualify you. See examples at the end of this document.

2021 (C) Computer Rating

2019 (C) Computer Rating

2021 (A) Appeal Rating

2020 (A) Appeal Rating

2019 (A) Appeal Rating

2021 (T) Tournament Rating

2019 (T) Tournament Rating

2021 (D) Dynamic DQ Rating (if DQ is at the endorsed level of play)

2020 (D) Dynamic DQ Rating (if DQ is at the endorsed level of play)

2019 (D) Dynamic DQ Rating (if DQ is at the endorsed level of play)

A player is NOT eligible to compete at the 2022 NTRP National Championships if their most recent rating is on the following list. Players MUST play at the following level or up one level and MUST be endorsed by the Section.

Any Self (S) Rating

Any Mixed (M) Rating

Any Expired Rating is not Eligible

Any Rating not listed above is ineligible

See below for examples of players that are eligible or not eligible (NOTE - all examples listed below MUST be endorsed by their home section). All of the below example assume the previous published rating was Year End 2019:

- 3.5 C moved up to 4.0 C at year end 2021 - This player is eligible to play 3.5, 4.0, or 4.5
- 3.5 C moved up to 4.0 T at year end 2021 - This player is eligible to play 3.5, 4.0, or 4.5
- 3.5 T moved up to 4.0 C at year end 2021 - This player is eligible to play at 3.5, 4.0, or 4.5.
- 3.5 T moved up to 4.0 T at year end 2021 - This player is eligible to play at 3.5, 4.0, or 4.5.
- 3.5 S moved up to 4.0 C at year end 2021 - This player is eligible to play 4.0, or 4.5
- 3.5 S changes to 3.5 C at year end 2021 - This player is eligible to play 3.5 or 4.0
- 3.5 S changes
- 3.5 S moved up to 4.0 T at year end 2021 - This player is eligible to play 4.0 or 4.5.
- 3.5 M moved up to 4.0 C at year end 2021 - This player is eligible to play at 4.0 or 4.5.
- 3.5 D moved up to 4.0 C at year end 2021 - This player is eligible to play at 3.5, 4.0 or 4.5.