PREVIEW NOTES

The United States has faced Australia more times than any other country in Davis Cup competition and now the two nations will meet for the second time in two years in the 2017 Davis Cup by BNP Paribas World Group Quarterfinal. The best-of-five match series will be played on an outdoor hard court at the Pat Rafter Arena in Brisbane, Australia, from April 7-9.

United States Davis Cup Captain Jim Courier announced that world No. 15 Jack Sock, No. 23 John Isner, No. 25 Sam Querrey and No. 29 Steve Johnson will represent the U.S. This is the same team that swept Switzerland, 5-0, in the World Group First Round this year. Sock made his debut on the U.S. team in September 2015, where he won both of his singles matches, and currently holds a 4-2 singles record and 1-0 doubles record in Davis Cup. Isner, who is competing in his 14th Davis Cup, holds a 12-10 singles record in Davis Cup competition. Querrey is competing in his 11th tie and holds a 7-8 singles record in Davis Cup singles play and is 1-0 in doubles. Johnson is playing in his third tie after also making his debut in 2015 and holds a 1-1 record in singles and 1-0 record in doubles, winning his first Davis Cup singles match this year.

Australia’s Davis Cup Captain Lleyton Hewitt nominated world No. 16 Nick Kyrgios, No. 79 Jordan Thompson, No. 198 Sam Groth, and world No. 2 doubles player John Peers to his team. This is the same team that defeated the Czech Republic in the World Group First round this year.

The United States-Australia rivalry, dating back to 1905, will return to Australia for the second consecutive year. Australia hosted the United States in the 2016 World Group First Round in Melbourne, won 3-1 by the Americans. Nations normally alternate which country hosts the other with each tie. However, the U.S. and Australia played consecutive ties in America in 1997 and 1999, when the ITF staged the latter tie at the Longwood Cricket Club in Chestnut Hills, Mass., the site of the first-ever Davis Cup tie, as a 100th anniversary celebration of the competition. As a result, the two countries agreed their next two ties would be in Australia.

The U.S. is 26-20 all-time vs. Australia. The winner of this tie advances to the World Group Semifinals, September 15-17, to play the winner of Italy and Belgium for a chance to compete for the Davis Cup crown.

The U.S. leads all nations with 32 Davis Cup titles and owns the longest uninterrupted run in the World Group, dating back to 1989. The U.S. holds a 217-70 all-time Davis Cup record and has a winning record against 36 of the 40 countries faced and a level record with one country. The U.S. is undefeated versus 22 countries and holds an active winning streak against 35 nations. Founded in 1900, Davis Cup by BNP Paribas is the World Cup of Tennis and is the largest annual international team competition in sport with approximately 135 nations competing each year.

SUCCESS IN THE WORLD GROUP QUARTERFINAL

The United States has a 19-7 record in the quarterfinals since the World Group format was instituted in 1981. The U.S. is 5-3 in World Group quarterfinal ties played away, and won its last quarterfinal away tie in 2012 in against France, 3-2, on an outdoor clay court in Monte Carlo. Overall, the U.S. is 8-4 on a hard court in the World Group quarterfinal.

Australia has a 16-4 record in the World Group Quarterfinal and is 9-1 at home in Quarterfinal ties, their only loss coming to Argentina in 2005. Though the Aussies’ preferred surface is grass – they’re 9-1 in Quarterfinal ties played on grass, home and away – they are 4-0 on hard courts in the Quarterfinals and won their only hard-court home tie, a 5-0 triumph over Belarus in 2006.

Player Biographies
A two-time Davis Cup champion as a player, Jim Courier is entering his seventh year as the U.S. Davis Cup Captain. Courier became No. 1 in the world in 1992 and is a four-time Grand Slam champion (1991-92 French Open, 1992-93 Australian Open). Before retiring in 2000, he captured 23 singles titles and six doubles titles and reached the final of all four majors during his career. Off the court, in 2004, he founded his own sports and entertainment company, InsideOut Sports & Entertainment, and in 2005, he was heavily involved in creating the Outback Champions Series (now called the PowerShares Series), a competitive tennis circuit featuring legendary tennis icons. Courier resides in Florida with his wife Susanna Lingman, who he married in 2010, and has two sons.

David Cup Career Highlights:

Final: United States, def. Switzerland 3-1 in Fort Worth, Texas (indoor hard)
Clinched the 30th Davis Cup title for the U.S. with a 6-3, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4 win over Jakob Hlasek on the final day. A young Andy Roddick was among the fans to attend the final. On the opening day, Courier dropped a five-set match to Marc Rosset 6-3, 6-7(9), 3-6, 6-4, 6-4, that leveled the tie at 1-1.

1994

Quarterfinal: United States def. Netherlands 3-2 in Rotterdam, Netherlands (hard)
Posted two live singles wins. Defeated Jacco Eltingh in the fifth-and-decisive match 6-3, 6-4, 6-1 after Richard Krajicek defeated Pete Sampras in four sets to level the match at 2-2. Courier defeated Krajicek in the opening rubber 6-4, 6-7(3), 6-3, 1-6, 8-6, to clinch the tie for the U.S.

1995

Final: United States def. Russia 3-2 in Moscow (indoor clay)
Helped the U.S. win its 31st Davis Cup title. On the opening day, Courier lost in straight sets to Russia’s No. 1 Yevgeny Kafelnikov. Also played a dead rubber against Andrei Chesnokov after Sampras defeated Kafelnikov to clinch the title.

First Round: United States def. Russia 3-2 in Atlanta (hard)
On a rare Davis Cup Monday finish, Courier rallied from a two-sets-to-one deficit against Marat Safin in the fifth-and-decisive match to win 0-6, 6-4, 4-6, 6-1, 6-4 after Andre Agassi had his 16-match Davis Cup winning streak ended by Yevgeny Kafelnikov. Courier lost in five sets to Kafelnikov in the opening rubber 6-2, 5-7, 6-7(2), 6-4, 6-4.

1999

First Round: United States def. Great Britain 3-2 in Birmingham, Great Britain (indoor hard)
Courier became the first U.S. player to win two five-set singles matches in the same tie. Courier opened the tie with a win over Tim Henman, 7-6(2), 2-6, 7-6(3), 6-7(10), 7-5. In the fifth and decisive singles rubber, Courier defeated Greg Rusedski 6-4, 6-7(3), 6-3, 1-6, 8-6, to clinch the tie for the U.S.

* Clinched the 3-0 win for the U.S. in his doubles debut with Steve Johnson in the 2017 World Group First Round against Switzerland.
* Won both of his singles matches in his Davis Cup debut and clinched the tie for the U.S. in Uzbekistan in the 2015 World Group Playoff, becoming the first American since John McEnroe in 1978 to win two live rubbers in a Davis Cup debut.
* Competed in two Davis Cup ties for the U.S. in 2016, going 1-2 in singles.

First Round: United States def. Switzerland 5-0 in Birmingham, Ala. (indoor hard)
Sock won the opening rubber as the No. 1 American to get the U.S. off to a strong start against Switzerland, defeating Swiss No. 2 and world No. 146 Marco Chiudinelli, 6-4, 6-3, 6-1, in the day’s first singles match. After John Isner put the U.S. up 2-0 on Friday, Sock was called to play doubles with Olympic partner Steve Johnson on Saturday. Sock and Johnson, who won the bronze medal in men’s doubles in Rio, went on to clinch the tie for the U.S., defeating Henri Laaksonen and Antoine Bellier, 7-6(3), 6-3, 7-6(5). This was the first doubles match played for the U.S. following the Davis Cup retirement for Bob and Mike Bryan, the all-time winningest doubles team in Davis Cup history. The U.S. completed the 5-0 sweep on Sunday with two additional wins in the dead singles rubbers.

2016

Quarterfinal: Croatia def. United States 3-2 in Beaverton, Ore. (outdoor hard)
Sock came from two sets down in the opening singles rubber against world No. 12 Marin Cilic, 4-6, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4, to get the U.S. off to a strong start against Croatia. On Sunday, Sock found himself in a live fifth singles rubber, but fell to world No. 54 Borna Coric, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4. After down 0-2 to the U.S. on Friday, Croatia made an epic comeback to defeat the U.S., 3-2, that Sunday.
First Round: United States def. Australia 3-1 in Melbourne, Australia (grass)
In just his second Davis Cup tie, world No. 24 Sock faced off against world No. 20 Bernard Tomic, who was playing in his 11th Davis Cup tie for Australia. In the end, Tomic defeated Sock, 7-6(2), 6-3, 3-6, 6-4, in two hours and 24 minutes. Sock and Tomic had previously played each other three times on the ATP Tour, with Sock winning all three matches, but this was the first time meeting on grass, as all other occasions were on a hard court. John Isner won both of his singles matches, while Bob and Bryan also won their doubles match, sealing the victory for the U.S. Sock did not compete in the dead singles rubber.

2015

Playoff: United States def. Uzbekistan 3-1 in Tashkent, Uzbekistan (outdoor clay)
In his Davis Cup debut, Sock won both of his singles matches and clinched the tie to send the U.S. to the 2016 World Group. Sock became the first American since John McEnroe in 1978 to win two live rubbers in a Davis Cup debut. On Friday, Sock defeated Farrukh Dustov, 7-5, 6-3, 6-2, and on Sunday, Sock clinched the tie with a win over Denis Istomin, 6-2, 2-6, 6-4, 6-4.
JOHN ISNER (12-10 in singles; 2-0 in doubles)

* Played in the 2016 World Group First Round against Australia in Melbourne and won both of his singles matches.
* Defeated world No. 3 Roger Federer in the 2012 World Group First Round in Switzerland in Isner’s first live singles match win and arguably one of the biggest wins of his career. It was the first time Federer had lost to an American on clay since 1999 and his first loss in 15 Davis Cup matches.
* Won two live singles rubbers in the 2012 World Group Quarterfinal in France to clinch the United States’ semifinal berth.
* Made Davis Cup debut in March 2010 in the World Group First Round, where he lost both singles rubbers in two marathon matches, and won doubles with Bob Bryan after replacing Mike Bryan (who suffered from food poisoning).
* Tallest player ever to represent the U.S. in Davis Cup.
* Served as a Davis Cup practice partner during the 2007 World Group Semifinal and Final.

2017

First Round: United States def. Switzerland 5-0 in Birmingham, Ala. (indoor hard)
Isner put the U.S. up 2-0 after day one of play after defeating Swiss No. 1 and world No. 127 Henri Laaksonen, 4-6, 6-2, 6-2, 7-6(1). In the match, Isner fired his 500th Davis Cup ace. The U.S. went on to clinch the tie in the doubles rubber on Saturday and completed the 5-0 sweep on Sunday with two additional wins in the dead singles rubbers.

2016

Quarterfinal: Croatia def. United States 3-2 in Beaverton, Ore. (outdoor hard)
Isner put the U.S. up 2-0 after day one of play after defeating world No. 54 Borna Coric, 6-4, 6-4, 6-3, in just under two hours. Isner then lost on Sunday to world No. 12 and 2015 US Open champion Marin Cilic, 7-6(9), 6-3, 6-4. Croatia went on to make an epic comeback and defeat the U.S., 3-2.

First Round: United States def. Australia 3-1 in Melbourne, Australia (grass)
Isner won both of his singles matches to help advance the U.S. to their first Davis Cup quarterfinal since 2013. In the first rubber of the day, Isner hit 20 aces in his straight-sets victory over world No. 77 Sam Groth, 7-6(2), 6-2, 6-2. Isner saved all six break points against him throughout the match. With the U.S. leading 2-1, Isner clinched the victory for the U.S. on day three with a win over world No. 20 Bernard Tomic, 6-4, 6-4, 7-6(4). Isner had an impressive day with his serve, firing 49 aces—the most aces he has ever served in a Davis Cup. Isner also set the all-time Davis Cup and ATP Tour serving speed record of 157 mph late in the third set with a serve up the middle. The previous serving record was held by Ivo Karlovic, who fired a 156 mph serve in Davis Cup in 2011.
2015

First Round: Great Britain def. United States 3-2 in Glasgow, Scotland (indoor hard)

U.S. Davis Cup history was made when Isner faced world No. 111 James Ward as they played in the longest-ever U.S. Davis Cup match lasting four hours and 57 minutes. However, the Isner came up short with Ward upsetting world No. 20 Isner, 6-7(4), 5-7, 6-3, 7-6(3), 15-13. The four-hour and 57-minute contest became the longest U.S. Davis Cup match since the introduction of the tiebreak in 1989. It surpassed the longest previous match at four hours and 48 minutes in the 2006 World Group Semifinal against Russia, where Dmitry Tursunov defeated Andy Roddick, 6-3, 6-4, 5-7, 7-6(7), 7-6(5), 17-15, in Moscow. The 75 total games were also the most games in a singles rubber since the introduction of the tiebreak in 1989. The previous record was 72 games in the Tursunov-Roddick match. On Sunday, world No. 5 Andy Murray clinched Great Britain's second consecutive Davis Cup World Group Quarterfinal appearance, beating Isner, 7-6(4), 6-3, 7-6(4). It was also Great Britain's second consecutive Davis Cup win over the U.S., after defeating the Americans in 2014 in the first round in San Diego.

Playoff: United States def. Slovakia 5-0 in Chicago (indoor hard)

Isner won both of his singles matches in easy fashion en route to the United States' 5-0 sweep over Slovakia. In Friday's first rubber, Isner fired 29 aces against No. 126 Norbert Gombos to win, 7-6(5), 6-4, 6-2. It was the first time that Isner won an opening match in a Davis Cup tie. On Sunday, Isner won his dead doubles rubber with a 6-3, 6-0, win over Lukas Lacko, which lasted just 43 minutes.

First Round: Great Britain def. United States 3-1 in San Diego (outdoor clay)

Donald Young replaced Isner on the U.S. Davis Cup team for the first round tie in San Diego due to Isner's sprained right ankle.

2014

Quarterfinal: Serbia def. United States 3-1 in Boise, Idaho (indoor hard)

In the opening rubber and Isner's second consecutive home tie, then-world No. 1 Novak Djokovic defeated Isner, 7-6(5), 6-2, 7-5. Djokovic fought off 17 aces from Isner in the match. Serbia clinched the tie, 3-1, in the third singles rubber after Djokovic defeated Sam Querrey. Isner's fourth singles rubber against Viktor Troicki was not played.

First Round: United States def. Brazil 3-2 in Jacksonville, Fla. (indoor hard)

Playing in his first Davis Cup tie at home and on a hard court, Isner blasts 32 aces as he posts a 6-3, 7-6(4), 6-3, win over Brazil's Thiago Alves following Sam Querrey's win over Thomaz Bellucci to put the U.S. up, 2-0, on the first day of play. After Bob and Mike Bryan lost their doubles rubber in a surprising turn of events, Isner battled for more than three and a half hours, but lost to Bellucci in a tough, 6-2, 6-4, 6-7(7), 6-4, 6-3, five-setter to even the tie, 2-2. Querrey, playing in the fifth and decisive match, clinches the tie for the U.S. to send them to the quarterfinal again Serbia.

Semiafinal: Spain def. United States 3-1 in Gijon, Spain (outdoor red clay)

After Sam Querrey lost in the opening rubber, Isner spent four hours and 16 minutes on court against Nicolas Almagro in the second singles rubber, but lost a marathon 6-4, 4-6, 6-4, 3-6, 7-5, match. With the Bryan brothers winning the doubles match on Saturday, Isner looked to even the tie on Sunday, but lost to Top 10 player David Ferrer 6-7(3), 6-3, 6-4, 6-2.

Quarterfinal: United States def. France 3-2 in Roquebrune, France (outdoor red clay)

Isner won two live singles matches and clinched the tie for the U.S. in the quarterfinal against France. Isner evened the tie 1-1 after day one of play, defeating Gilles Simon in three sets. With the Bryan brothers winning the doubles match on Saturday, Isner clinched the tie for the U.S. on Sunday, defeating Jo-Wilfried Tsonga 6-3, 7-6(4), 5-7, 6-3, to send the U.S. to its first Davis Cup semifinal since 2008.

First Round: United States def. Switzerland 5-0 in Fribourg, Switzerland (indoor clay)

Isner recorded arguably one of the biggest wins of his career, upsetting Roger Federer during the United States' 5-0 sweep of Switzerland. Isner stunned world No. 3 Federer 4-6, 6-3, 7-6(4), 6-2, on clay to earn his first win in a live Davis Cup singles match. It also marked Federer's first loss to an American on clay since 1999. Isner followed Mardy Fish, who defeated Stan Wawrinka in four sets to put the U.S. up 2-0 on the first day of play. Isner later won his other singles match in straight sets to seal the United States' 5-0 victory over Switzerland.

2011

First Round: United States def. Chile 4-1 in Santiago, Chile (outdoor clay)

With the U.S. leading 1-0, Isner faced Paul Capdeville in a marathon five-set match that lasted four hours and 22 minutes—the fifth-longest singles rubber in U.S. Davis Cup history. After Isner captured the first two sets, Capdeville came back and edged Isner 6-7(5), 6-7(2), 7-6(3), 7-6(5), 6-4. Isner later won a dead rubber 6-3, 6-7(4), 7-5, against Guillermo Rivera-Aranguiz after a doubles victory by Bob and Mike Bryan and the tie-clinching win by Andy Roddick.

2010

Playoff: United States def. Colombia 3-1 in Bogota, Colombia (outdoor clay)

With the tie even at 1-1, Isner paired with Mardy Fish (who had played in a five-set first singles rubber the day prior) to win the doubles rubber, defeating Robert Farah and Carlos Salamanca 6-4, 6-4, 6-7(5), 6-3. Fish went on to win another five-set match the following day and clinched the tie for the U.S.
First Round: Serbia def. United States 3-2 in Belgrade, Serbia (indoor clay)
Isner made his Davis Cup debut in the first singles rubber, facing Viktor Troicki, where Isner lost 7-6(4), 6-7(5), 7-5, 6-4 in a match lasting more than three and a half hours. With the U.S. down 0-2, Isner was called upon to play doubles with Bob Bryan, after Mike Bryan suffered food poisoning. Isner and Bob Bryan defeated Nenad Zimonjic and Janko Tipsarevic 7-6(8), 5-7, 7-6(8), 6-3, in just over three hours. Isner then played in the third singles rubber the following day in a five-set marathon against world No. 3 Novak Djokovic. Isner lost 7-5, 3-6, 6-3, 6-7(6), 6-4, for a total of 10 hours and 58 minutes on the court. He became the first player to play three live matches since James Blake in 2003 in the World Group first round in Croatia, where Blake went 1-1 in singles and lost in doubles with Mardy Fish.

Prior to playing for the U.S. Davis Cup team
2007
Final: United States def. Russia 4-1 in Portland, Ore. (indoor hard)
Selected by Captain Patrick McEnroe to serve as a practice partner for the U.S. team, which consisted of Andy Roddick, James Blake, and Bob and Mike Bryan prior to Team USA’s 32nd Davis Cup crown.

Semifinal: United States def. Sweden 4-1 in Gothenburg (indoor carpet)
Selected by Captain Patrick McEnroe to be a practice partner for the U.S. team, which consisted of Andy Roddick, James Blake, and Bob and Mike Bryan; joined Sam Querrey, who was also a practice partner for the tie; Isner had just reached the NCAA singles final at the University of Georgia, won the NCAA doubles title, and led his squad to the NCAA team title.

Birthdate: Oct. 7, 1987
Birthplace: San Francisco
Resides: Las Vegas
Plays: Right-handed / two-handed backhand

* Ranked No. 27 at the time of team nominations.
* 2016 Wimbledon quarterfinalist, upsetting Novak Djokovic in the third round, ending Djokovic’s 30-match Grand Slam win streak; win also marked the first time an American beat the No. 1 seed at a Grand Slam since Agassi d. Hewitt at the 2002 US Open.
* Won his ninth ATP title in 2017 in Acapulco, Mexico, defeating Rafael Nadal in the final and Nick Kyrgios in the semifinals.
* Became the top-ranked American man in March 2013 at No. 20 in the world and just the 13th American No. 1 since the introduction of the computer rankings in 1973.
* Peaked at No. 17 in the world in January 2011, but was forced to undergo right elbow surgery in June 2011 that sidelined him for three months.
* Holds five ATP doubles titles, including two with Davis Cup teammates John Isner (Memphis in 2010 and Rome in 2011) and Steve Johnson (Geneva in 2016).
* Made his Olympic debut at the 2008 Games in Beijing (lost in the first round in singles and doubles).

* Became just the 135th player to represent the U.S. on the Davis Cup team in the 108 years of the competition; first U.S. Davis Cup rookie since Robby Ginepri made his debut at the 2004 World Group First Round vs. Austria. It represented the longest span between U.S. Davis Cup team debutantes in 62 years.
* Won two singles matches in his first Davis Cup tie at home and on a hard court during the 2013 World Group First Round versus Brazil in Jacksonville, Fla., and also clinched the tie for the U.S. in the fifth-and-decisive rubber.
* Practice partner for the U.S. Davis Cup team 2005-07.

2017

First Round: United States def. Switzerland 5-0 in Birmingham, Ala. (indoor hard)

After the U.S. clinched the win over Switzerland, 3-0, on Saturday, Querrey competed in the first dead singles rubber on Sunday, defeating Adrien Bossel, 6-3, 7-5.

2015

Playoff: United States def. Uzbekistan 3-1 in Tashkent, Uzbekistan (outdoor clay)

With the tie level at 1-1, Querrey teamed with Steve Johnson after the duo advanced to the US Open doubles semifinals together to defeat Denis Istomin and Farrukh Dustov, 6-3, 6-2, 6-2, and put the U.S. up 2-1. The U.S went on to win the tie, 3-1, and remain in the World Group for 2016.

2014

Playoff: United States def. Slovakia 5-0 in Chicago (indoor hard)

Querrey won both of his singles matches in easy fashion en route to the United States’ 5-0 sweep over Slovakia. In Friday’s first rubber, Querrey defeated Martin Klizan, 7-6(6), 6-3, 6-3. On Sunday, after Bob and Mike Bryan clinched the tie in doubles on Saturday, Querrey won the dead singles rubber with a 6-4, 4-6, 6-4, 6-4, win over Norbert Gombos.

First Round: Great Britain def. United States 3-1 in San Diego (outdoor clay)

In a brave effort on a clay-court, Querrey lost both singles matches in the first round tie in San Diego. In the second singles rubber on Friday, Querrey lost to Great Britain’s James Ward in a tight, 1-6, 7-6(3), 3-6, 6-4, 6-1, match. With the U.S. down, 2-1, on the final day of play, Querrey fell to then-world No.6 and 2012 US Open singles champion Andy Murray, 7-6(5), 6-7(3), 6-1, 6-3, to give Great Britain the win. The match was played at Petco Park and was the first time that Davis Cup had been played in an open air baseball stadium in the U.S. It was also the first time that the U.S. Davis Cup team had hosted a tie on clay since the 1992 semifinals.

Quarterfinal: Serbia def. United States 3-1 in Boise, Idaho (indoor hard)
After John Isner lost to then-world No. 1 Novak Djokovic in the opening rubber, Querrey continued to come up big for his country in Davis Cup in 2013, defeating Serbia’s Viktor Troicki, 7-6(1), 3-6, 4-6, 6-1, 6-4. Querrey won his third consecutive live Davis Cup rubber, serving 17 aces to defeat Troicki. On the final day of play, with the U.S. down 1-2, Querrey faced Djokovic and early in the first set, Djokovic appeared to injure his right ankle and took a medical timeout. Djokovic returned and in the end, defeated Querrey, 7-5, 6-7(4), 6-1, 6-0.

First Round: United States def. Brazil 3-2 in Jacksonville, Fla. (indoor hard)
Playing in his first Davis Cup tie at home and on a hard court, Querrey opens the tie and coasts to easy straight-sets win over Brazil’s Thomaz Bellucci, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4. John Isner also wins on the first day to put the U.S. up, 2-0, over Brazil. In a surprising turn of events, Bob and Mike Bryan lose their doubles rubber and then John Isner loses a tough five-setter to Bellucci to level the tie, 2-2. No. 20 Querrey rallies to beat Thiago Alves 4-6, 6-3, 6-4, 7-6(3), in the fifth-and-decisive match. It was the first time a U.S. Davis Cup match came down to the final match since Pete Sampras defeated Slava Dosedel of the Czech Republic in the 2000 quarterfinals in Los Angeles. Querrey had not won a live singles match prior to this weekend and ended up with two wins. Querrey’s Sunday match took place on Super Bowl Sunday and concluded during the first quarter when a touchdown had already been scored.

Semifinal: Spain def. United States 3-1 in Gijon, Spain (outdoor clay)
Playing in his first Davis Cup tie since 2010, Querrey opened the tie with a tough match against world No. 5 David Ferrer, but loses, 4-6, 6-2, 6-2, 6-4. John Isner then spent four hours and 16 minutes on court against Nicolas Almagro in the second singles rubber, but lost a marathon five-set match. Bob and Mike Bryan kept the U.S. hopes alive by winning the doubles match, and then Ferrer defeated Isner in the fourth rubber, 6-7(3), 6-3, 6-4, 6-2, to send Spain to its seventh Davis Cup final since 2000 by defeating the U.S. 3-1.

2010

Playoff: United States def. Colombia 3-1 in Bogota, Colombia (outdoor clay)
After Mardy Fish won the first singles rubber, Querrey lost his singles rubber, losing to Santiago Giraldo 6-2, 6-4, 7-5. Fish paired with John Isner the following day to capture the doubles point, then Fish won another five-set match on the final day to clinch the tie for the U.S.

First Round: Serbia def. United States 3-2 in Belgrade, Serbia (indoor clay)
In his second tie on the road, Querrey took one first set off of No. 3 Novak Djokovic in the second match of the tie 6-2, 7-6(4), 2-6, 6-3. With the U.S. trailing 0-2, John Isner and Bob Bryan captured the doubles tie, but Isner lost in a five-set match to Djokovic for the Serbia clinch. Querrey played in the dead rubber and defeated Viktor Troicki 7-5, 6-2.

2008

Semifinal: Spain def. United States 4-1 in Madrid (red clay)
Making his Davis Cup debut on the road on red clay, Querrey took the first set off of No. 1 Rafael Nadal in the first match of the tie before losing 6-7(5), 6-4, 6-3, 6-4, just 18 days after losing to Nadal in four sets in the fourth round of the US Open. It marked just the second time in U.S. Davis Cup history that the team faced the world’s No. 1 player. Following Nadal's tie-clinching victory over Roddick on Day 3, Querrey lost to Feliciano Lopez in a dead rubber, 7-6(3), 7-6(4).

Prior to playing for the U.S. Davis Cup team

2007 – Semifinal: United States def. Sweden 4-1 in Gothenburg (indoor carpet)
Selected by Captain Patrick McEnroe to serve as a practice partner for the U.S. team, which consisted of Andy Roddick, James Blake, and Bob and Mike Bryan.

2007 – Quarterfinal: United States def. Spain 4-1 in Winston-Salem, N.C. (indoor hard)
Served as an alternate for the U.S. team due to the uncertainty surrounding Andy Roddick’s hamstring injury nine days before the tie. The U.S. team consisted of Roddick, James Blake, and Bob and Mike Bryan.

2006 – Quarterfinal: United States def. Chile 3-2 in Rancho Mirage, Calif. (grass)
Drove his “pimped-out” 1974 Volkswagen Vanagon from his home to be a practice partner for the U.S. team; Forced by teammates Andy Roddick, James Blake, and Bob and Mike Bryan to sing karaoke in the hotel lobby after the official dinner.

2005 – World Group Playoff: United States def. Belgium 4-1 in Leuven (indoor red clay)
Selected by Captain Patrick McEnroe to serve as a practice partner for the U.S. team, the first of 10 consecutive ties that the U.S. featured the lineup of Andy Roddick, James Blake, and Bob and Mike Bryan. Querrey had reached the final of the USTA Boys’ 18s National Championships earlier that summer.

1995 – Semifinal: United States def. Sweden 4-1 in Las Vegas (hard)
Attended as an 8-year-old with his family, witnessed Sampras and Agassi help lead the U.S. into the World Group Final.

- Made debut for the U.S. Davis Cup Team in 2015 against Uzbekistan, winning the doubles rubber with Sam Querrey after the duo advanced to the US Open doubles semifinals together. Lost in his singles debut in five sets in Uzbekistan.

2017

First Round: United States def. Switzerland 5-0 in Birmingham, Ala. (indoor hard)

After the U.S. led 2-0 after day one of play, Johnson teamed with Olympic partner Jack Sock in the doubles rubber. Johnson and Sock, who won the bronze medal in men's doubles in Rio, went on to clinch the tie for the U.S., defeating Henri Laaksonen and Antoine Bellier, 7-6(3), 6-3, 7-6(5). This was the first doubles match played for the U.S. following the Davis Cup retirement for Bob and Mike Bryan, the all-time winningest doubles team in Davis Cup history. Johnson then competed in the second dead singles rubber on Sunday, defeating Antoine Bellier, 6-4, 6-3, to complete the 5-0 sweep.

2015

Playoff: United States def. Uzbekistan 3-1 in Tashkent, Uzbekistan (outdoor clay)

Johnson faced off against world No. 62 Denis Istomin in his Davis Cup debut. Istomin was competing in his 24th Davis Cup tie, while Johnson was playing in his first. After three hours and 33 minutes and five sets, Istomin came out on top, defeating Johnson, 6-1, 3-6, 7-6(5), 6-7(3), 7-5. Johnson then teamed with Sam Querrey after the duo advanced to the US Open doubles semifinals together to defeat Denis Istomin and Farrukh Dustov, 6-3, 6-2, 6-2, and put the U.S. up 2-1. The U.S went on to win the tie, 3-1, and remain in the World Group for 2016.

LEARNING TO FLY

* In 1946, the U.S. Davis Cup team first traveled by airplane to a Davis Cup tie, flying from San Francisco to Auckland, New Zealand, en route to Melbourne, Australia, for the 1946 Challenge Round Final vs. Australia. Following the 5-0 U.S. victory, the Davis Cup trophy made its first airplane journey back to the United States.

* In 1909, it took the U.S. Davis Cup team 23 days to sail from Vancouver, Canada, to Brisbane, Australia, for the 1909 Challenge Round Final vs. Australia.

* In 1900, the British Davis Cup team traveled for nine days by sea from Liverpool, England, to New York to play the United States in the first ever Davis Cup tie in Boston.

SURVIVORS OF THE TITANIC (APRIL 15, 1912)

* Norris Williams survived the icy waters long enough to be rescued, barely escaping both his legs being amputated. Williams, who lost his father in the tragedy, made his Davis Cup debut 14 months later vs. Australasia in the 1913 World Group Final.

* Karl Behr also survived the famous sinking of the Titanic. He was a member of the team that lost to Australasia in the 1907 World Group First Round.
BROTHERLY LOVE

* Identical twins Bob and Mike Bryan played in 16 straight Davis Cup ties from the 2003 World Group Playoff at Bratislava, Slovak Republic, through the 2008 World Group Quarterfinal in Winston-Salem, N.C.; together, they held a 24-5 Davis Cup record together.

* George and Robert Wrenn were the first set of brothers to play on the same U.S. Davis Cup team, pairing in doubles in the 1903 Challenge Round Final vs. Great Britain’s sibling team of Reggie and Laurence Doherty (the Doherty brothers won 7-5, 9-7, 2-6, 6-3).

At the 2006 World Group First Round vs. Romania in La Jolla, Calif., four sets of brothers were on hand to represent the U.S. and support the team. Twins Bob and Mike Bryan won the doubles point when Victor Hanescu was forced to retire with a rib injury after the first set. Captain Patrick McEnroe and his brother, John, who came down from the OLN broadcasters booth, amused the crowd with an exhibition match vs. the Bryans following the shortened doubles rubber. Additionally, both Andy Roddick’s brother, John, and James Blake’s brother, Thomas, were in La Jolla to cheer on the team.

WINNING TWO FIVE-SET MATCHES IN SAME TIE

* Mardy Fish led the United States to a 3-1 victory over Colombia in the 2010 World Group Playoff in Bogota to maintain a place in the Davis Cup World Group for 2011. Fish played nearly 11 hours of tennis over three days and won both of his singles matches in five sets, first defeating Alejandro Falla 4-6, 6-1, 6-4, 3-6, 6-4, and then clinching the tie in the reverse singles by defeating Santiago Giraldo 3-6, 6-3, 7-5, 4-6, 8-6, for the United States’ 3-1 win. He teamed with John Isner to post a four-set win.

* Jim Courier won both of his singles matches in five sets in the United States’ 1999 first round win over Great Britain in Birmingham, England. Courier opened the tie with a win over Tim Henman, 7-6(2), 2-6, 7-6(3), 6-7(10), 7-5. In the fifth and decisive singles rubber, Courier defeated Greg Rusedski 6-4, 6-7(3), 6-3, 1-6, 8-6, to clinch the tie.
The United States has found itself in a fifth-and-decisive match 38 times. The U.S. holds a modest 20-18 record.

TOP 30 AMERICANS JACK SOCK, JOHN ISNER, SAM QUERREY, AND STEVE JOHNSON TO FACE AUSTRALIA IN DAVIS CUP BY BNP PARIBAS WORLD GROUP QUARTERFINAL

Matches to be held at the Pat Rafter Arena in Brisbane, Australia, April 7-9

WHITE PLAINS, N.Y., March 28, 2017 – The USTA and United States Davis Cup Captain Jim Courier today announced that world No. 17 Jack Sock, No. 23 John Isner, No. 27 Sam Querrey and No. 28 Steve Johnson will represent the U.S. in the 2017 Davis Cup by BNP Paribas World Group Quarterfinal against Australia. The best-of-five match series will be played on an outdoor hard court at the Pat Rafter Arena in Brisbane, Australia, April 7-9.

Australian Davis Cup Captain Lleyton Hewitt nominated No. 16 Nick Kyrgios, No. 79 Jordan Thompson, No. 188 Sam Groth and John Peers, who is ranked No. 3 in doubles, to his team.

This marks the second consecutive year the U.S. has played at Australia in Davis Cup. Nations normally alternate which country hosts the other with each tie. However, the Americans and Australians played consecutive ties in the U.S. in 1997 and 1999, when the ITF staged the latter tie at the Longwood Cricket Club in Chestnut Hills, Mass., the site of the first-ever Davis Cup tie, as a 100th anniversary celebration of the competition. As a result, the two countries agreed their next two ties would be in Australia.

The U.S. has faced Australia in Davis Cup play more times than any country, holding a 26-20 all-time record in a rivalry that dates back to 1905. The U.S. won the last meeting, 3-1, in Kooyong, Australia, in the 2016 World Group First Round, led by Sock, Isner, and Bob and Mike Bryan. Earlier this year, the U.S. swept Switzerland, 5-0, in the World Group First Round in Birmingham, Ala., while Australia beat the Czech Republic, 4-1, in Kooyong.

Play begins at 12 p.m. local time (10 p.m. ET the day prior) on Friday, April 7, and Sunday, April 9. Play begins on Saturday at 1 p.m. local time (11 p.m. ET on Friday).

Friday will include two singles matches featuring each country’s No. 1 player against the other country’s No. 2 player. Saturday’s schedule features the pivotal doubles match. And the final day of play on Sunday features the two “reverse singles” matches, when the No. 1 players square off, followed by the No. 2 players meeting each other in the final match. All matches are best-of-five sets until one nation clinches the tie. A revised schedule for Sunday may take place if a team clinches in the third or fourth match.

The winner of this tie advances to the World Group Semifinals, Sept. 15-17, for a chance to vie for the 2017 Davis Cup title. The semifinal opponent will be either Belgium or Italy.

Sock, 24, is ranked a career-high No. 17 in the world after winning his second and third career ATP titles this year in Auckland and Delray Beach, Fla., respectively, then reaching the semifinals of the BNP Paribas Open ATP Masters 1000 event in Indian Wells, Calif. Sock has played Davis Cup since the 2015 and holds a 4-2 record in singles, including a win over Marin Cilic in last summer’s quarterfinal vs. Croatia, and a 1-0 record in doubles. Sock won his first ATP singles title in 2015 in Houston, and he has also reached four additional ATP finals (Stockholm, Houston and Auckland in 2016; Stockholm in 2015). Sock has also thrived in doubles, winning the 2014 Wimbledon doubles title with Vasek Pospisil and capturing the gold medal in mixed doubles at the Rio Olympics with Bethanie Mattek-Sands. In 2011, he won the US Open mixed doubles title with fellow American Melanie Oudin. Sock peaked at a career-high No. 6 in the individual doubles rankings in May 2015.

Isner, 31, is ranked No. 23 in the current world rankings and will be competing in his 14th Davis Cup tie; he is 12-10 in singles and 2-0 in doubles. Isner’s biggest Davis Cup victory came in 2012, when he defeated Roger Federer in the U.S. Davis Cup team’s first-round win at Switzerland. The tallest player in U.S. Davis Cup history at 6-foot-10, Isner made his Davis Cup debut in the 2010 World Group First Round in Serbia, where he became the first U.S. player since 2003 to compete in three live rubbers in the same tie. He also represented the U.S. at the 2012 London Olympics, reaching the quarterfinals before losing to Federer. He holds 10 career tour singles titles, the last of which came in Atlanta in 2015. In 2016, Isner reached the final in Atlanta and at the Masters 1000 event in Paris and reached the fourth round of the Australian Open and French Open. Isner turned pro after an outstanding four-year career at the University of Georgia, leading the Bulldogs to the 2007 NCAA team title as a senior.

Querrey, 29, is ranked No. 27 after winning his ninth career ATP title in Acapulco a month ago, a tournament in which he defeated four straight Top 20 players: No. 11 David Goffin, No. 9 Dominic Thiem, No. 17 Kyrgios and No. 6 Rafael Nadal. Querrey is competing in his second straight tie and his 11th overall after winning a dead singles match in February's World Group First Round vs. Switzerland. He made his Davis Cup debut in 2008, where he faced Nadal in his first-ever match. Querrey holds a 7-8 record in Davis Cup singles play and is 1-0 in doubles. He also competed in the 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing. In 2016, Querrey advanced to the quarterfinals of Wimbledon, upsetting Novak Djokovic in the third round and becoming the first American to beat the No. 1 seed at a Grand Slam since 2002. In addition to his singles success, Querrey holds five ATP doubles titles, including two with Isner (Memphis in 2010 and Rome in 2011) and one with Johnson (Geneva in 2016). Querrey peaked at No. 17 in the world in January 2011.

Johnson, 27, is ranked No. 28 in the world. He is playing in his second consecutive Davis Cup tie and third overall, after clinching victory with Sock in doubles in February’s World Group First Round vs. Switzerland (he then won a dead singles rubber). Since then, Johnson has reached three straight ATP quarterfinals, most recently falling to Federer in two tiebreaks in the third round at Indian Wells. Johnson started 2017 strong by reaching the semifinals in Auckland, losing to Sock. In 2016, he won his first career ATP singles title in Birmingham, Great Britain. Also in 2016, he advanced to the fourth round of Wimbledon for the first time, the semifinals of the Citi Open in Washington D.C., and captured the bronze medal in men’s doubles at the Rio Olympics with Sock. Johnson, who peaked at No. 21 in the world in July 2016, turned pro in 2012 after an outstanding college tennis career at USC; he won the 2011 and 2012 NCAA singles championships and led the Trojans to team titles all four years he played for the school. Following the end of his collegiate career, he reached the third round of the 2012 US Open, becoming the first reigning NCAA champion to advance to the third round of the men’s singles since 1995.

Additionally, Courier announced that Connor Smith will be the practice partner for the U.S. Davis Cup team. Smith was also a practice partner for the U.S. Davis Cup team in Australia in 2016. Smith, 26, graduated from Ohio State in 2013 after transferring from Florida State following his sophomore season. He went 36-7 in singles and 33-7 in doubles during his senior year. Smith holds six USTA Pro Circuit/ITF Circuit singles titles and 14 doubles titles, including two doubles titles this year held at the new USTA National Campus at Lake Nona in Orlando, Fla. In 2016, he competed in Australian Open qualifying for the first time. Smith is ranked No. 329 in the world.

Founded in 1900, Davis Cup by BNP Paribas is the World Cup of Tennis and is the largest annual international team competition in sport, with approximately 135 nations competing each year. The U.S. leads all nations with 32 Davis Cup titles. The U.S. holds a 217-70 all-time Davis Cup record and owns the longest uninterrupted run in the World Group, dating back to 1989.
