I am honored for the opportunity to serve as the current president of the USTA/Midwest Section. You'll see that 2019 was another great year to be involved with tennis in the Midwest. The following pages are an illustration of what develops from hard work and how we have come together as players, teaching professionals, volunteers and staff members. What you'll see:

- Many deserving individuals who were honored with grants and scholarships at our annual awards ceremony
- Niraj Komatineni from Mason, Ohio was named one of the recipients of the 2019 USTA National Junior Scholar Athlete Award. This award honors high school tennis players who best demonstrate that tennis is the sport of opportunity for education, advancement and character development.
- Four Midwest teams winning the USTA League Championship and nine finishing in the top four
- Players competing at the international level:
 - Joe Russell from Northeastern Ohio competed with Team USA to win the Super Senior World Championship.
 - Qavia Lopez and Nishesh Basavareddy, two junior players from Milwaukee, Wisconsin and Carmel, Indiana, respectively, represented the United States in the finals of the ITF World Junior Tennis Competition.
- Another record year at the Western & Southern Open. Midwest Section staff and volunteers helped plan several community events including:
 - Kids' Day, High School Day, Pride Night, Net Generation Exhibitions, Family Zone, Play Tennis Cincinnati, Wheelchair Tennis and the debut of an Adaptive Tennis event.
- The Midwest Section pioneering the way in unique areas such as the Ambassador Program in its second year.

I'm proud to be associated with so many passionate and dedicated people who love tennis and are working hard to invite others to do the same. I have collaborated with Team Leads and Committee Chairs and met with new volunteers and staff, all in preparation to organize and plan for our continued growth and exciting new opportunities in 2020. Our mission is to promote and grow the game of tennis in our communities. To do this, we must foster an inviting atmosphere so that as many people as possible can enjoy tennis and share in our Section's continued success. I invite you to read through the pages and see why our Section continues to be a model for all others.

Sincerely,

Paul Farah

YEAR

HONORS AND AWARDS 2019 HIGHLIGHTS

The USTA/Midwest Section was proud to recognize its 2019 award winners throughout the year; some during special events in their communities, others during the Section's 126th Annual Meeting. Awards are presented in recognition of outstanding teaching and instruction, officiating, promotion of the game, sportsmanship and character. Others are presented in honor of continuous and distinguished service to growing the game at all levels.

MIDWEST SECTION AWARD WINNERS

Wes Kirk (Terre Haute, Ind.)

Recognizes the tennis teaching professional who contributes to tennis in his or her community beyond his livelihood. This person gives freely in promoting involvement in tennis for players of all levels and ages, and assists in developing tennis programs and promoting participation.

Kirk has been a tennis teaching professional for more than 20 years with Terre Haute Junior Tennis Association (THJTA) and is the face of tennis throughout Wabash County. He is currently coaching the boys' and girls' tennis teams at Sullivan High School.

Kirk boasts the completion of at least nine indoor after-school programs (six to eight weeks each) in three schools around the Terre Haute area. Through these programs, and many others spearheaded by Kirk, more than 100 children in the Wabash Valley have benefited from programs just this year, not including the free programming offered by the THJTA during the summer.

It is also a well-known fact that Kirk goes above and beyond for the juniors of the Terre Haute community. He lives and breathes tennis, and he truly is the face of junior tennis in the Wabash Valley, working hard year-round to provide the best instruction possible and takes it to wherever the kids are located.

Kirk is a strong believer in starting children early in the game of tennis. While not every child may be the next superstar, Kirk knows tennis will lay a good foundation for the rest of a child's life. He is sensitive to the tough financial situations families face, and gives lessons to kids at reduced rates or does not charge them at all.

Through this model of teaching and interacting with the future tennis players of the United States, Kirk embodies the spirit of Cap Leighton, who is considered in many ways to be the model teaching professional.

FRANK DOWLING AWARD

Betsy Craig (Kalamazoo, Mich.)

Recognizes an individual who has displayed outstanding attributes as a tennis official in the Section for at least five years.

Craig has been a certified USTA official since 2010. She has served as Chair of Officials for the USTA Western Michigan District since 2014, coordinating officials for events involving juniors and adults, and is also a member of the USTA/Midwest Section Officials Committee.

Craig has been responsible for roving, refereeing, line work and chairing matches. She has been an official at Big Ten Collegiate Conference Championships, USTA Pro Circuit tournaments and ITF wheelchair tournaments. Craig also works the Boys' 16 and 18 National Championships every year in Kalamazoo.

She was recently honored with the 2018 Western Michigan Tennis Association Bob Barr Officials Award, 2018 USTA Boys' 16 and 18 National Championships Community Service Award and the 2018 Western Michigan Tennis Association Paula Stephanic Service Award.

Paul Moran (Northfield, Ill.)

Recognizes a volunteer, wheelchair player, tennis professional or coach who has made outstanding contributions and has demonstrated excellence in the sport of wheelchair tennis. This individual has shown evidence of dedication to improving, advancing and promoting wheelchair tennis in his or her community.

Moran serves as a player, volunteer, teaching professional and coach in the Northfield area. He currently teaches with the Great Lakes Adaptive Sports Association in Lake Forest and instructs at the AC Nielson Tennis Center in Winnetka. Moran participates in countless tennis clinics, camps and exhibitions to promote tennis and bring more players into the game. His clinics and camps have included the Shriners, Shirley Ryan Ability, the USTA, Camp Trek Adaptive Sports Camp and many more.

Moran was only 18 years old when he was hit by a trolley as a freshman at Boston College, losing his right leg and two fingers. Following the accident, Moran was introduced to wheelchair tennis at his first experience with the Paralympics in Barcelona. Since then, Moran has never turned down an opportunity to promote and expand wheelchair tennis within his community. Moran participated in his first Paralympics games as a tennis player in Beijing, which was his fifth Paralympics altogether.

Currently ranked No. 5 in the United States in wheelchair tennis, Moran competes in tournaments in both the USTA/Midwest Section and around the country. He has also been honored with a spot in the Wheelchair Softball Hall of Fame.

Not only has Moran worked with wheelchair athletes, but he has also coached athletes who are ambulatory or have a physical disability.

WHEELCHAIR TENNIS PERFORMANCE AWARD

Lucy Chamberlin (Harbor Springs, Mich.)

Recognizes the outstanding 16 or 18-and-under age division female player from the Section for the highest standards of tennis accomplishments, character, conduct, sportsmanship and amateurism.

Chamberlin is an accomplished junior tennis player at Harbor Springs High School. As a freshman, she was the No. 2 singles regional runner-up. As a junior, she was the No. 1 singles regional runner-up and upset the second seed at the state tournament. She also qualified for the state tournament her freshman and sophomore year.

The Harbor Springs native has also been instrumental in her teammates' success. During the summer of her sophomore year, on her own initiative, Chamberlin assisted two fellow teammates in learning the game of tennis, working with them three to four days out of the week. One of the girls Chamberlin assisted went on to play No. 3 singles on the high school team and even won a round at the annual Michigan State University tournament.

During her junior career, Chamberlin has also participated in junior tournaments, including the prestigious USTA/Midwest Section Closed Junior Championships and the USTA/Midwest Section Marian Wood Baird Cup.

In 2018, Chamberlin was presented with the USTA Northern Michigan District Junior Female Sportsmanship Award, which recognizes sportsmanship and achievements both on and off the tennis court.

In addition to her many accomplishments on the court, Chamberlin is also an avid swimmer. She is the four-time winner of the Hammerhead Coaches' Award, awarded to a swimmer who demonstrates sportsmanship, diligence and helping others.

Away from sports, Chamberlin maintains a 3.9 GPA, was named All-Academic team to the Lake Michigan Conference, participates in school band, is a member of the National Honor Society and volunteers with community organizations.

HELEN SHOCKLEY AWARD

WALLACE R. HOLZMAN, SR. AWARD

Steven Forman (Troy, Mich.)

Recognizes the outstanding 16 or 18-and-under age division male player from the Section for the highest standards of tennis accomplishments, character, conduct, sportsmanship and amateurism.

Forman reached a ranking of No. 2 in the USTA Boys' 18 Singles standing list in 2018. He played high school tennis at Troy High School for four years. One of his biggest accomplishments to date was earning the Division 1 No. 1 singles state title in 2016.

Since then, Forman has been recognized for his sportsmanship by receiving USTA tournament sportsmanship awards during his junior career. He was also selected for USTA/Midwest Section teams which competed in the USTA Intersectional BG16 and USTA Boys' 18 National Team Championships. He also participated on the Southeastern Michigan Tennis Association team, which captured the USTA/Midwest Section Boys' 18 Team Cup in 2016 and 2017. Forman counts being part of teams that respectively won two national team championships and back-to-back Midwest team cup titles as some of his most important achievements in his tennis career.

Forman was named Michigan High School Tennis Coaches Association "Mr. Tennis" in 2017. This award is given to a No. 1 senior singles player.

Forman is currently finishing his freshman year at the University of Michigan, where he is playing on the men's tennis team. Off the tennis court, Forman earned a 3.9 GPA and was active in various high school activities.

STANLEY MALLES AWARD

Ginger Gilles (Indianapolis, Ind.)

The Stanley Malless Award is presented to a volunteer recognizing distinguished service in his or her district. The award honors an individual who has contributed to the development of tennis programs from the grass roots up for five years or more.

Gilles began as an educator at Kokomo High School and the varsity girl's tennis coach for 21 years, retiring in 2006 with 298 wins. She was selected as District Coach of the Year four times. Gilles also coached varsity volleyball, track and field, and basketball.

Gilles has been an advocate for the Central Indiana Tennis Association (CITA) for many years now, starting as a CITA Board member in 2008. She has been supportive of all USTA programs, including USTA League and USTA Jr. Team Tennis. Gilles was instrumental in the conception of the BBBS (Big Brother Big Sister) Tennis program, which has now run for three years. Gilles was also involved with starting the CITA Foundation and getting it off the ground.

When Gilles became the president of Central Indiana Tennis Association in 2017, she became the next great leader of the organization, leading by example and attending all meetings. Gilles also volunteered for events and was extremely present at the Section level.

Gilles formed relationships with everyone that she connected with in this role. In 2020, Gilles will be joining the USTA/Midwest Section Junior Play Committee. As a member on the CITA board, Gilles was a great mentor for new board members, and her legacy is strong. One of her many goals was to plan for the future with clear actions and guidelines on how to achieve those goals. Gilles remains an active part of the Central Indiana tennis community.

MEL BERGMAN AWARD

Paul MacDonald (Mundelein, Ill.)

The USTA/Midwest Section's most prestigious award, the Mel Bergman Award is given in recognition of continuous and distinguished service to the Section in an unselfish, dedicated manner for ten years or more. Mel Bergman, an extremely dedicated volunteer, was a President of the USTA/Midwest Section who served on the USTA Executive Committee.

MacDonald started volunteering with the USTA/Midwest Section in 1990 and has been an integral part of the tennis scene in Chicago, the Midwest and nationally for over 30 years. He has volunteered on many USTA and USPTA committees and has spent countless hours advising and coaching adult and junior players and parents.

MacDonald has also been involved with the implementation and developments of new National junior ranking systems throughout the years. In addition to his countless hours of service, MacDonald has been recognized at a District level all the way up to a National level. Most notably, MacDonald served as the President of the Chicago District Tennis Association from 2009-2010. He was also a member of the Chicago District Tennis Association Board of Directors from 2005-2008 and from 2011-present.

On a Section level, MacDonald served many years coaching junior players to success. He also served as a speaker at several USTA/Midwest Section events.

Nationally, MacDonald was the head coach and administrator at the USTA Area Training Center from 1989 to 1992. MacDonald gives his time to the USTA National Junior Competition Committee as well.

MacDonald continues to bring an open mind to the game of tennis and remains an unbiased and fair voice of reason in his work on and off the court.

FAMILY OF THE YEAR AWARD

The Gene Orlando Family (Lansing, Mich.)

The Orlando family resides in Lansing, Mich. and is comprised of Gene, Janice, Vincent, Gabbie and Maggie Orlando. Gene Orlando has been the Michigan State University Men's tennis coach for 28 years. He has coached the Western Michigan District Team Cup for the Boys' 18s for the past two years. ORGANIZATIONAL AWARDS

COMMUNITY TENNIS ASSOCIATION OF THE YEAR

Terre Haute Junior Tennis Association

Recognizes outstanding service rendered in the community and in the growth and development of the sport of tennis.

The THJTA was formed in 1986 after funding issues forced the Vigo County School Corporation to end its summer recreation program. Over the past 33 years, the organization has introduced thousands of juniors between the ages of 4-18 throughout Wabash Valley to the lifetime sport of tennis. It has employed an average of 30 people each summer and trained professionals and high school players to teach tennis, direct clinics, tournaments, team tennis and special events.

Throughout the summer, the THJTA provides free youth clinics with a morning session for beginners and an afternoon camp for advanced players. They also host a multitude of tournaments, which have attracted local, state, regional, national and international players. Russian professionals, Marat Safin and Anna Kournikova, were among some of the international players to attend these tournaments. The THJTA also works with local schools to provide tennis in physical education classes as well as after-school programs and more.

In addition to the summer programs, the THJTA often provides equipment to area middle and high schools to further promote tennis. The organization is a Net Generation provider, which has allowed them to provide needed equipment to elementary school for use by physical education teachers as well as after-school programs. The THJTA offers its tennis programming from in-kind gifts, sponsorships, corporate donations and revenue from tournaments and after-school programs.

Many of the THJTA's participants over the years have continued playing tennis on their respective high school teams, and the organization has also provided summer jobs for these high school players as instructors. The THJTA's success is measured by its years in existence, partnerships built in the community, a combined 75 years of teaching experience between their professional teaching staff and thousands of students introduced to tennis.

Staff at the THJTA are very proud of the association and the partnerships they have built in the Wabash Valley. They hope to continue to provide quality tennis opportunities and great memories for their juniors for many years to come.

MEMBER ORGANIZATION OF THE YEAR

Ann Arbor Rec & Ed

Recognizes outstanding service by a member organization to its members and the game of tennis.

Ann Arbor Rec & Ed is a public-school, district based non-profit program serving more than 2,000 participants of all ages and backgrounds each year throughout the Ann Arbor, Mich. area. The organization's array of programming includes approximately 300 multi-session, affordable youth and adult tennis classes and camps annually that utilize 12 sites including public school tennis courts and gyms, and the University of Michigan Varsity Tennis Center.

Ann Arbor Rec & Ed is a Net Generation provider offering the youth progression pathway, Junior Team Tennis and entry level tournaments.

Ann Arbor Rec & Ed provides many opportunities to both its participants and the community. The organization partners with the University of Michigan, hosts tennis events and tournaments, donates equipment to players, facilitates Net Generation trainings and school partnerships, offers scholarships and reduced fees to low income families and hosts local USTA community tennis meetings.

MIDWEST TENNIS HALL OF FAME

Robert “Bob” Ryland, New York City (formerly of Chicago, Ill.)

Ryland began playing tennis at the age of nine through the encouragement of his father and Mrs. C.O. Seames, one of the first nationally-known black tennis coaches, from the Chicago Prairie Tennis Club. Ryland reached the singles finals of the Illinois State High School Championship in 1937 and 1938. He won the American Tennis Association (ATA) Boys’ 18 and under singles championship in 1939.

Following his high school career, Ryland received scholarship offers to play at Xavier University, Wayne State University and Tennessee A & I. Ryland played for Wayne State University for two years and became the first black man to play in the NCAA tournament, advancing to the semifinals in 1946. He then went on to play and later coach at Tennessee A & I and twice led the team to national championships. Ryland also won the men’s singles championship in the Detroit Public Parks integrated tournament in 1946.

Ryland went on to win several other singles titles, including the ATA Men’s Singles Championship in 1955 and 1956. He became an admired part of the black tennis community. A 14-year-old Arthur Ashe even said his only dream was “to be good enough to beat Bob Ryland.” His success continued, and in 1959, he broke through the barriers of race and class to become the first professional African American player. Ryland played his first match as a professional in Cleveland.

The Chicago native saw success in both the ATA and integrated amateur tournaments around the country, which made him one of the best-known black players in the United States.

Later in life, Ryland began sharing his love of the game through coaching. He worked briefly at the St. Albans Tennis Club in Washington, D.C. where he gave tennis lessons to some of Washington’s elite. He also coached at Midtown Tennis Club in New York City from the mid-1960s to the mid-1980s.

Ryland also coached Venus and Serena Williams when they were juniors, as well as teaching tennis to several celebrities, including Dustin Hoffman and Barbara Streisand.

Ryland was previously inducted into the Wayne State University Athletic Hall of Fame in 1991, the USTA/Eastern Section Hall of Fame in 2002, the Black Tennis Hall of Fame in 2009 and USPTA/Eastern Division Hall of Fame in 2013.

Brian Eisner, Ann Arbor, Mich.

As a Division I Men's Collegiate Head Coach for 37 years, Eisner boasted a combined win-loss record of 523-231-1 (755 matches). Eisner served as the University of Toledo Head Men's Coach over six seasons from 1963-1969, followed by his longest coaching stint at the University of Michigan for 31 seasons (1969-1999).

In addition to a deep commitment to the sport of tennis on the coaching side, Eisner also played in college at Michigan State University where he was a finalist in the Big Ten singles championship in 1960 and captained the team in 1961 and 1962.

Through his many years of coaching, Eisner received many accolades and led his teams over the years to victory. Eisner was named Big Ten Men's Tennis Coach of the Year four different times and won 18 Big Ten Conference championships with one streak of 16 consecutive titles. He won four consecutive Mid-American Conference Championships while coaching at the University of Toledo. Eisner is also responsible for producing 12 collegiate All-Americans and six Big Ten Players of the Year.

Eisner is also a crucial part of his Ann Arbor community, where he still resides. Eisner founded, owns and operates Liberty Athletic Club, which serves as a multi-sport athletic facility with tennis courts and has been a leader in tennis programming for many decades.

Eisner is a member of the University of Toledo Athletics Hall of Fame, the ITA Men's College Tennis Hall of Fame and the University of Michigan Athletic Hall of Honor.

Leif Shiras, Laguna Hills, Cali. (formerly of Shorewood, Wisc.)

Leif Shiras was an accomplished junior player before winning the Wisconsin State High School singles title as both a junior and a senior at Shorewood High School. He eventually became the No. 1 ranked player in the state for the 18 and under division. Shiras continued his tennis at Princeton University where he was captain of the team and was named All-American in 1979 and 1980. He was also a member of the US Junior Davis Cup team.

Following his graduation from Princeton in 1981, Shiras was a regular on the ATP World Tour from 1982 to 1991. His career wins over Pete Sampras, Ivan Lendl, Johan Kriek and Kevin Curren helped him reach a career-high ranking of No. 31 in the world. He was the finalist at Queen's Club, the Wimbledon tune-up in 1984, where he upset Lendl before losing to John McEnroe in a three-set final – one of only two men to take a set off McEnroe on grass that year.

His best singles performance at a Grand Slam event was at Wimbledon when he reached the fourth round in 1989. In 1995, Shiras won the Veteran Doubles Championship at Wimbledon with former Grand Slam titlist Peter McNamara. Shiras was a US Open Mixed Doubles semi-finalist with Kathleen Horvath in 1984. He was also selected by Davis Cup captain Tom Gorman to travel with US teams as practice partner for John McEnroe and Andre Agassi.

Shiras has enjoyed a 30-year career as a tennis broadcaster. He worked at Prime Network, Fox Sports Net, USA Network and Outdoor Life Network covering the ATP and WTA tours with longtime partner Barry MacKay. Shiras is one of the original announcers at the Tennis Channel since its inception in 2003. He continues to be a part of their broadcast team 17 years later.

Most recently, Shiras was a part of the USTA's broadcast team for the 2019 US Open and called the men's singles championship match.

USTA/Midwest Tennis & Education Foundation

Founded in 1992 as the charitable arm of the USTA/Midwest Section, the USTA/Midwest Tennis & Education Foundation (formerly Midwest Youth Tennis & Education Foundation) has been supporting communities, programs and individuals to provide greater educational opportunities for you. The three main pillars of its mission include:

- Providing tennis opportunities to those from all cultural and ethnic backgrounds;
- Supporting programs that focus on creating positive environments for at-risk youth and select adult populations;
- Helping youth reach their highest potential in tennis and education.

More than $100,000 Awarded in 2019

The Foundation awarded $116,150 in grants and scholarships this year which included the following: 14 programs receiving grant funding from across the Midwest; 28 junior player grants for individuals of all ability levels; one recipient of the EntouRaj for Kids grant, three recipients of the Dorothy Kohl Future Star Achievement Award; one Anne Krupp Memorial Scholarship recipient, and six college scholarship recipients. The Foundation also awarded grant funding to the following programs in support of its mission to support adaptive and wheelchair tennis: Buddy Up Tennis in Columbus, Ohio; Special Olympics Wisconsin in Madison, Wisconsin; and YMCA of Lancaster and Fairfield County in Lancaster, Ohio.

The Foundation is excited to have awarded more than $1,000,000 in grants and scholarships over the years since the initial individual and program grants awarded in 1994. The Foundation is excited to continue to change and transform lives through tennis and education for generations to come.

Kids' Day and Junior Team Challenges

The Foundation was excited to offer some special opportunities for youth during the summer. First, the Foundation partnered with the Chicago District Tennis Association to offer a Kids' Day event in July during the Nielsen Men's Pro Tennis Championship in Winnetka, Ill. Approximately 125 youth along with coaches from five Chicago area National Junior Tennis & Learning (NJTL) Chapters and two programs serving underserved youth participated in several on-court activities which included learning the basics of the game, challenge the pro court, and ball footwork and agility fun. Two former USTA/Midwest junior players, Evan King and Michael Redlicki, conducted an on-court demonstration, players received t-shirts and Net Generation bags, and they were treated to lunch as well as watching the matches.

Second, the Foundation worked closely with the Northeastern Ohio Tennis Association and USTA/Midwest Section to provide a junior team challenge event in June. More than 50 youth along with coaches from one NJTL Chapter and two programs serving underserved youth attended the event held at The Ohio State University in Columbus, Ohio. The team challenge provided a low-pressure team environment allowing junior participants to develop their skills through level-based play without an emphasis on instruction or results. Players and coaches played on the university tennis courts, were provided with lunch, and received a tour of the university campus.

Daniel Scrivano (Shelby Township, Mich.)

Daniel Scrivano began playing tennis for fun when he was very young and joined tennis camps during the summer in his area, but did not become serious about the sport until he reached high school. After starting his freshman year on the junior varsity team, Scrivano made his way to the varsity team for the next three years where he qualified for three state final tournaments.

Today, Scrivano is ranked No. 5 in the world in his disability category, and came in second at the first-ever Adaptive Standing Tournament in the Midwest last year. Though he works full-time, Scrivano is always looking for ways to improve Adaptive Standing Tennis. His ultimate goal is to help make Adaptive Standing Tennis as wide-spread as wheelchair tennis in the United States and internationally.

To date, Scrivano is most proud of the impact he has on other children living with a disability and demonstrating that anything is possible. Through his social media and other avenues, Scrivano receives emails and messages from parents telling him how seeing what he has accomplished has helped their child have the courage to try something new.

Robert and Barbara Harris Community Tennis Grant

We are always excited to work with individuals and organizations interested in partnering with us to help achieve our mission. Through a generous donation received two years ago from one of our Foundation Board members, Neil Harris, we created the Robert P. and Barbara D. Harris Community Tennis grant. This award is provided annually to organizations seeking to start or expand tennis programming (develop instructional programs, organize league/tournament play and more) in their community. The recipients of the second year grant are Chicago District Tennis Association in Chicago, Illinois, and Ashtabula County Tennis in Ashtabula, Ohio.

NJTL CHAPTER OF THE YEAR

Recognizes the outstanding NJTL Chapter that has demonstrated continued excellence in recreational tennis. Criteria include: quality of on-court and off-court programming, interaction with local parks and recreation departments and contributions to the local community.

Todd Martin Youth Leadership (Lansing, Mich.)

ADULT INTERSECTIONALS: MEN

The annual USTA Keith Donoff Cup, the USTA's national men's 55 & Over Intersectional event, took place from November 5 to November 17, 2019. The tournament saw a total of five Sections in action – Florida, Mid-Atlantic, Middle States, Midwest and Southern.

The Donoff Cup is composed of the following age divisions: 55s, 60s, 65s and 70s. The five Sections had a team compete in each of those divisions, where they faced off in round robin dual matches.

The Midwest teams fought valiantly but fell to very strong teams from Southern, Florida and Mid-Atlantic Sections.

Standings:

55s Team: 14th place finish

60s Team: 12th place finish

65s Team: 17th place finish

70s Team: 19th place finish

ADULT INTERSECTIONALS: WOMEN

The 2019 USTA Intersectional Team Event moved back to a former site at the Naples Swim and Tennis Club, now the home of the ASC Sanchez-Casal Tennis Academy. Played on Har-Tru clay, the contests ended with five of Southern's six teams winning every division except the 75s, where Southern Cal and Florida ended as Co-Champions in a match halted after singles due to steady rain. The 80s Southern team had to share the Co-Champion title with Texas as their matches also concluded early because of the weather.

Fierce competition ensued on the court and sincere friendship prevailed off the court. The NSWTA sponsored their annual reception for players on Tuesday for the 55 and older players, while also offering for the first time a gathering for the young seniors ages 35-54 on Saturday afternoon. Team bonding and friendship renewals were evident as many gathered on the patio in front of the tournament desk daily to chat and wait for their matches to be called.

Matt Gleason, Intersectional Tournament Director for the second time and also Executive Director for USTA Phoenix, organized this event along with Tournament Chairman Rogelio de Haro. On Thursday, players gathered around the pool to enjoy dinner, awards and a live band. Despite losing a large part of Friday to inclement weather conditions, another Intersectional event came to a conclusion in the spirit of great competition and enduring friendships. Next year the event moves back to Phoenix on hard courts and will be played November 9-15, 2020.

TENNIS AMBASSADORS

The Ambassador Program continues to be a success with a total of 28 Ambassadors in 2019. The goal of at least one representative per District has been reached this year. Ambassadors are volunteers who are dedicated to promote the sport of tennis in their communities through their social media channels and advertising local tennis tournaments and programs in their area. The program is gaining interest and growing rapidly.

AMBASSADOR SPOTLIGHT

Greg Franzo, Chicago District

“The role of Tennis Ambassador is a natural fit for who I have evolved to be in the tennis community and ‘my’ club, the Oak Brook Tennis Center. I usually captain 4 to 5 teams a season (around 15 a year), and now am captaining adult teams in 4 age divisions (18&O; 40&O; 55&O; 65&O). I’m considered a fixture at the club, scouring the courts for recruits, talking up USTA League with the teaching pros, and often giving a pitch to drill groups and individual members about the excitement of competing in a format that includes the path to a National Championship! And, being the guy who will fill in any group at the last minute. I look forward to the role of Tennis Ambassador to advance the presence of USTA League in the club, and promote the concept with my many tennis buddies at clubs around metro Chicago.”

Katie Finke, Chicago District

“Having moved around a lot, tennis and the USTA has always been a great way for me to make new and long-lasting friends. Tennis is truly a lifelong sport that I have been playing since I was 10 years old. I have been a part of the USTA across four states (GA, AL, NC and IL). Tennis allows me to socialize, be competitive, stay fit and most of all have FUN all at the same time!! I LOVE that the game of tennis is one that I can also share with my husband and 4 kids. Honored to be a Tennis Ambassador and share my love of the sport and USTA with others!”
