High School Tennis

Developed by the International Tennis Federation (ITF), the world governing body of tennis, the ITF World Tennis Number is a free, globally recognized rating that over 180 countries have adopted, including the U.S.

About the ITF World Tennis Number

- 40 to 1 scale, with beginners starting at 40 and professional players being closer to 1
- New ratings run every Wednesday for near real-time accuracy
- The algorithm includes sets won and not games won
- Players get one number for singles and one number for doubles
- Millions of player match results across the U.S. and the world means more data points are analyzed
- The second acceptance criteria for ITF Junior and Senior Tournaments
- The exclusive rating for USTA Junior Tournaments and the Intercollegiate Tennis Association
- A personalized tool called GameZone helps identify players of similar skill level
- Access to statistics to track and improve your game, including head-to-head comparisons with other players and their win/loss ratios
- College Connect makes it easier for junior tennis players to explore playing opportunities in college tennis

Team WTN's

- Average of up to top 6 players singles WTN's with over a 50% confidence level
  - Blue checkmark: high confidence - 70-100%
  - Light blue checkmark: medium confidence - 40-60%
  - Grey checkmark: low confidence - 10-30%
- All lines are weighted equal
